Golden Jubilee 1967-2017

As you will all know by now we will be celebrating our Golden Jubilee next year, and there are a whole host of events being planned for the year observing our heritage, music, art, liturgy, our people and our future. There has been a small group of people meeting for almost 3 years now and it is hoped that the programme that has been put together will have some appeal for everyone. One of the first things to come to fruition is our new gold Cathedral logo that we will be using as our brand for next year, and to see it actually transferred onto a banner for the main entrance was very exciting. It has been a challenge for our Art Department as the particular gold colour that we wanted was hard to source, but like everything they do the end result is amazing. Seeing the banner in situ did bring home to me that actually we have only have a relatively short time now to get the final details sorted out. There still seems an awful lot to do!

One of the projects that I have been tasked with is to organise the Flower Festival for 2017. I am not quite sure how this landed on me as at the moment I don't know my dandelions from my dahlias, but I am banking on the expertise and knowledge of some of the flower arranging groups and individuals that have already signed up. The theme of the Festival is Cathedral Life: A Floral Tribute, (personally I preferred The Flower and the Glory but this was dismissed at an earlier stage!) and the idea is that each Chapel around the Cathedral will in some way depict the different liturgical seasons and the sacraments that are received at the Cathedral.

We have an initial meeting of anyone who might be interested in preparing a display – they don't have to be extravagant, large ones – leave that to the experts! If you would like to know more, or have a friend or relative who you think might be interested in helping out please ask them to contact me direct.

You will have to have some experience of preparing flower displays either in your own home or parish, and a great deal of enthusiasm, but other than that it would be great to have you involved.

Our first meeting, when groups will choose which Chapel they want to decorate will be on Tuesday 1 November at 2.00pm in the Gibberd Room and we have another one if you can't make due to take place on Thursday 24 November at the same time. Some of the groups who have signed up took part in the last Flower Festival held at the Cathedral and have fond memories of Sr Anthony being in charge. One lady I spoke to on the telephone was very upset that Sr Anthony was not going to be organising it this time around. I have big shoes to follow in, and I hope that I manage to make Sr Anthony proud! So you can get the date in your own diary the Festival will open to the public on Friday 2 June and run right over the weekend of celebrations until Monday 5 June. 'Flowers always make people better, happier, and more helpful; they are sunshine, food and medicine for the soul.' Exciting times ahead!

Looking not so far ahead to Tuesday next week we celebrate the Feast of ALL Saints and all Souls on Wednesday. The Fauré Requiem will be sung by the Cathedral Choir at the 5.15pm Mass on Wednesday.

We have the Cathedral Book Club meeting on Thursday evening at 7pm in the Gibberd Room. Don't worry if you have started the book and not finished it, or didn't like it at all – please just come along to meet new friends and to have a chat over a glass of wine!

HOPE+ NEWS

We continue to receive many generous donations, especially from schools. Last week, we received very large donations from Kinglsey Community School and Bellerive FCJ. However, we also continue to be far busier than we would have expected to be at this time of year; helping 298 people at our Thursday pantry at St Margaret's alone, meaning that our total for the week was 360. Our As Akbar our store manager put it "Now shelves are full, but next month they will be empty again". As Christmas approaches, people who are just about coping start to struggle, so we are once again urging you to use our Reverse Advent Calendar as a fun way to donate to Hope+. Please pick up a flyer for more information and our Christmas shopping list. Many thanks for your continued and generous support. Finally: Watch this space. We will be encouraging you to start a "Reverse Advent Calendar" as one way to support us during Advent and Christmas. All you need to get started is an empty box; empty wine boxes with twelve compartments work really well, if you use two together.

FRIENDS EVENT

VISIT TO THE CATHEDRAL ARCHIVES on Tuesday 8 November 2016 at 10.30am. What happens in a busy Archives Department? Come along and find out for yourself. Following Morning Coffee in the Gibberd Room, there will be a general talk about what happens on a day to day basis and you will be given some idea of the questions and queries that are raised with the Archivist and her volunteer helpers and how they can assist you in all manner of ways from Family tree searches to pub quiz answers!! You will then have exclusive access to the Cathedral Archives where there will be a full tour of the generous suite of rooms, including the Reading Room, with explanations. Finally there will also be on display a mix of materials in both the Reading Room and surrounding areas of the Archives. Your questions and queries will all be answered. Cost: £12.00. This ticket price includes refreshments on arrival, an exclusive tour of the Archives, followed by soup and sandwiches.

ALL SAINTS

Let us remember in our prayers on the Feast of All Saints all men and women of goodwill: that they may preserve in the path of goodness, truth, honesty and integrity. Let us remember all those who are weighed down by troubles and disappointments that the example of the Saints may inspire them. Let us pray that we may be able to overcome our weakness, selfishness and cowardice and imitate the generosity and courage of the Saints. Let us remember that to be a saint is to be a witness to God's love in our lives. There is no higher vocation than this. Help us to follow it with all our hearts.
