Remembrance Sunday

Today is Remembrance Sunday and we keep a period of silence to remember all those who lost their lives in defence of our country in the two World Wars last century and in conflicts and peace keeping duties since then. "They shall not grow old, as we that are left grow old. Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn. At the going down of the sun and in the morning we will remember them."

The Chapter of Canons meet and celebrate Mass here at the Cathedral on a number of occasions throughout the year and in the last few years the numbers of Canons on the Chapter have been in decline with a series of retirements and deaths. The role of the Chapter used to be far more influential in the past as a major consultative body within the Diocese but we have little purpose these days so it seemed we were in a terminal decline. Anyway all that has changed with the recent appointment of four new Chapter Canons and one Honorary Canon. The four new Chapter Canons are Fr Peter Stanley who is at St Joseph's, Chorley, Mgr John Furnival, Sts Peter and Paul, Crosby, Fr Christopher Fallon, St Teresa's, Norris Green and Fr Stephen Maloney, All Saints, Anfield. Fr Aidan Prescott who is parish priest at St Clare's and Diocesan Chancellor will be made an Honorary Canon. This should reduce the average age of the Chapter to about seventy and it may even speed up the procession into Mass on the days that we meet. It also means that I will have to search in the Sacristy cupboards for mozzettas (little purple capes with a furry collar and hood) which are used for the Installation of a Canon and then never worn again. We have two in relatively useable condition but we have never had to find five before, and even if we have them they will probably be well moth eaten by now. Archbishop Malcolm will install the new Canons at 12.15pm Mass in the Cathedral on Tuesday 29th November – if you notice any of them itching around the collar they will be the ones with the moth eaten mozzettas.

Next Sunday we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King - Archbishop Malcolm will preside at the Solemn Mass on our Patronal Feast Day.

It is also the day on which the church marks the end of the Jubilee Year of Mercy and the closing of the Holy Doors in Catholic Cathedrals throughout the world. We will be having a Diocesan Mass next Sunday at 3.00pm to mark the closing of the Holy Year. The closing of the Holy Door will enable us to batten down the hatches for the onset of the Winter. We have had a vast range of groups of people coming on pilgrimage throughout the year ranging from enclosed religious to children of all ages, local parish groups and others who have travelled considerable distances to make a pilgrimage.

Over the course of the year we have received some lovely thank you letters remarking on the welcome they have received and the quality of the leaflets and reflections that were available.

Hopefully it has been a help to many people on their journey of faith and a year of Grace.

HOPE+ NEWS

After a wonderful ten months at St Margaret of Antioch, Hope+ returned to its original home at St Bride's. As we said previously, we intend St Bride's to be our winter quarters, but the plan is to return to St Margaret's in the spring, where the extra space and open layout, allow us to accommodate more people in our busier months. We have new plans in place for St Bride's, which we will be sharing with you soon. We have taken what we have learned at our two more traditionally laid out church pantries at St Vincent and St Margaret, and are experimenting with using a similar system at St Bride's. Although this is the third Sunday before Advent, we are encouraging as many people as possible to start work on making their very own Reverse Advent Calendar now. Do please pick up a leaflet on how to make one, which also includes our Christmas shopping list on the reverse. We need to encourage as many people as possible to do this, as despite the very generous recent donations we have received, we do need to keep ourselves well stocked, especially as the weather turns colder. Although we really enjoy being able to offer treats and toys at Christmas, our priority is to ensure that all our guests have enough to eat, warm clothing, and the means to keep themselves and their families clean. Any donations or help that you are able to give, is always very much appreciated.

FRIENDS EVENT

The Cathedral Friends Christmas Supper will take place on Tuesday 29 November 2016 at 7.30pm in the Gibberd Room. Come along and join the Cathedral Friends for an evening that promises to be full of good company, good food and good wine! The chefs from the Italian Fish Club have prepared a delicious two course, home cooked supper which is sure to satisfy and delight. Tell all your Friends and Family! The tickets are £17.50 and available from Cathedral House or by emailing c.hanlon@metcathedral.org.uk.

NEW CATHEDRAL CHOIR CD

The Cathedral Choirs latest CD has just been released, entitled 'The Choral Music of Colin Mawby.' The music of composer Colin Mawby, who has recently celebrated his 80th birthday, is often heard at liturgies here in the Cathedral and is particularly suited to our acoustic and architecture. The composer himself upon hearing the CD commented 'I have just listened to the CD and am absolutely delighted. There is great beauty in the music and it makes me feel that it would be gravely sinful for me to give up composing.' The Cathedral has a limited supply of the new CDs: these can be purchased (priced £12) from the Cathedral Music office (0151 708 7283 / music@metcathedral.org.uk). CD's will also be on sale in the porch after the Solemn Mass on Sunday 20th, Feast of Christ the King.

REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY

Let us pray for all who suffer as a result of conflict, and ask that God may give us peace: for the service men and women who have died in the violence of war, each one remembered by and known to God; for those who love them in death as in life, offering the distress of our grief and the sadness of our loss; for all members of the armed forces who are in danger this day, remembering family, friends and all who pray for their safe return; May God give peace.
