HERITAGE OPEN WEEK

Every September some 40,000 volunteers across England organise 5,000 events to celebrate our fantastic history and culture. It is your chance to see hidden places and try out new experiences – all of which are free to explore. This year the Cathedral is delighted to support David Peglar from the Art Studio who is throwing open the doors of the Art Studio to visitors for 3 days. The Art Studio will be open from Thursday 7th to Saturday 9th September from 10.00am – 3.00pm. Visitors will also be able to view an exhibition of Cathedral Textiles, as well as other items created by the Sewing for Pleasure Class. Workshops will take place throughout the 3 days in the Art Studio. And refreshments will be on sale. This is a wonderful opportunity for visitors to go behind the scenes! Please ask the Guides to show you to the Studio. For further information please email enquiries@metcathedral.org.uk. We look forward to seeing you.

CAR BOOT SALE

We are hoping to start the Car Boot sales again in the autumn but need good quality items to sell on the Cathedral table. Please have a good clear out over the summer and drop in any of your unwanted goods to Cathedral House. If you have items of furniture that you are looking to get rid of we will arrange for it to be collected. However, we will only take certain items so please don't be offended if we don't take what you are chucking out! We are now experts on what we can sell and what we can't! The bath is still in the storage area!!!!

FRIENDS EVENT

A Festive Floristry Demonstration and Amusing Talk hosted by Muir Simpson, President of the North West Area of NAFAS will take place on Saturday 18 November at 1.00pm in the Gibberd Room. With over 25 years experience of working with flowers Muir Simpson will join us for an afternoon of fun with flowers. The afternoon will include hints, tips and advice about how to design and make your own:-
Christmas table arrangement; Festive door wreath, Altar arrangement; Pedestal and Door/wall hanging.
Afternoon tea will also be served. Muir is simply the best at what she does and this afternoon will be one not to miss if having an interest in blooms and arrangements appeals to you. Following on from the interest from our Flower Festival we expect this event to be a sell out so do get your tickets as soon as you can. Tickets are £15 which include the demonstrations, tea and scones. Get yours from Cathedral House or by emailing c.hanlon@metcathedral.org.uk

Cathedral Notice Board

ST VINCENT'S LOTTERY NUMBERS

For week commencing 5 August. Winning numbers are 1, 2, 6, 8, 13 and 14. The prize was £350. There were no winners so the prize is now £400. Please speak to a member of staff in Cathedral House if you would like to join up.

JOURNEY IN FAITH

This is a group process for anyone who may wish to become a Catholic. We meet at the Cathedral for a series of Mondays (6pm) between the end of September and Easter. Journey in Faith is for those who are practising Christians of different denominations. It is for those who belong to other faiths and religions. It is for those who may be searching for faith. The content is all about exploring Catholic belief and practice through Scripture and Church Teaching. This is not a series of classes and assessments, rather occasions to share experiences and to learn from each other. The plan is to gather a group together any time from now so that we are ready to start in the autumn. Then at the Easter Vigil we shall receive those who desire full reception into the Church. We have three enquirers already. Be confident that a warm welcome awaits you.

LITTLE CHURCH

Please note that Little Church will stop for the summer on 22 July and start again in September.

DORIS SCARISBRICK RIP

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Doris Scarisbrick who died last week after a short illness. Doris was a huge supporter of the Cathedral and for many years looked after the Readers Rota. We shall miss her a great deal. May she rest in peace. Please also remember in your prayers her husband John. Her Requiem Mass will take place at 12.15pm in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel on Monday 21st August 2017.

WORKHOUSE TO WORSHIP 1st August-29th September 2017

An exhibition on display in the Hornby Library in Liverpool Central Library in William Brown Street shows the Mount Pleasant site prior to the construction of the Metropolitan Cathedral of Christ the King. The crypt for the uncompleted Cathedral by Sir Edwin Lutyens was opened in 1937. Previously the site was occupied by Brownlow Hill Workhouse which was finally demolished in 1931 and at one time the largest workhouse in England. Brownlow Hill Workhouse opened in 1771 in open countryside to provide shelter for the poor and destitute of the parish of Liverpool. Known as a 'town within a town', it occupied a 9 acre site that in time came to serve 5,000 inmates. The responsibility for building the Workhouse, its staffing and administration fell on the local Board of Guardians, or in Liverpool the Select Vestry. Religious worship was encouraged and an Anglican church was built within the confines, although Roman Catholic services were not allowed until 1844 and did not become a regular occurrence until 1856. Father Joseph Kelly celebrated Mass for the Catholic congregation from 1907 to 1927. His Police Identity Certificate is available to view on display along with the monstrance used in services. There are Workhouse architectural plans, paintings, maps, photographs, apprentice indentures, Christmas invitations and many more related records of interest on display.

BOOK CLUB

The date for the next meeting of the Cathedral Book Club will be on Tuesday 19 September at 7pm in the Gibberd Room when we shall be meeting to discuss Eleanor Oliphant is completely fine by Gail Honeyman. All welcome. 'Smart, warm, uplifting, Eleanor Oliphant Is Completely Fine is the story of an out-of-the-ordinary heroine whose deadpan weirdness and unconscious wit make for an irresistible journey as she realises the only way to survive is to open your heart.' Any queries just get in touch with Claire at c.hanlon@metcathedral.org.uk
