Walsingham Tour

Congratulations to all our children who make their first Holy Communion in the Crypt Chapel and the Cathedral this weekend. I hope that they all have a special celebratory weekend and that they will grow to love and ever deepen their devotion to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament.

Ten years ago Liverpool Hope University organised a week long conference for young adults from universities across the world as part of Liverpool's year of culture in 2008. The gathering was entitled 'The Big Hope' and attracted about a thousand young people who listened to renowned speakers and discussed key issues facing the world from a faith perspective. They decided to repeat this conference again this year which has been entitled 'The Big Hope 2' and almost a similar number of young adults were welcomed to Liverpool at an opening ceremony in Liverpool Cathedral last week. The closing ceremony for this will be at our Cathedral this Tuesday afternoon at 2pm to mark the end of what will hopefully have been a memorable week for all who took part.

Over the years' I have been at the Cathedral we have been visited by nearly all the televised programmes on antiques and I have slowly notched up appearances on most of them, some being more enjoyable than others. One of the few that I haven't been on is the one that I occasionally watch –The Antiques Roadtrip – so I was pleased to hear that they wish to come and do some filming here this week. In the programme antiques experts set off around the country searching for treasures to bring to auction competing between against another to make the most money. In this episode one of them wants to visit the Cathedral en route – quite what they want to film we won't know until they arrive on the day.

The Junior Choirs from both Cathedrals will be giving a joint concert of music from 7pm next Wednesday in our Cathedral.

ADOREMMUS NATIONAL EUCHARISTIC PILGRIMAGE AND CONGRESS

Eucharist is... Food for the Journey

We might do well to take a moment to thank God for all that we have received, materially and in prayer. All that we have faced in our lives we did not face alone. Always God's strength and God's love were at work in our hearts even when, and perhaps especially when, we did not know it at all. We can pray for those for whom the journey is hard. But we can pray too that God's strength and love will be at work in our hearts to make us bread broken for others, bringing the nourishment of God's love to the weary and downcast.

MICAH LIVERPOOL COMMUNITY MARKET

Is an opportunity for Liverpool residents to purchase groceries at a heavily reduced price. The Market is open to everyone on Mondays from 23 April from 11.00am – 2.00pm at St Michael in the City, Upper Pitt Street, Liverpool, L1 5BD.

REFLECTIONS ON THE JOY OF LOVE (Amoris Laetitia)

In this 325-paragraph document, Pope Francis provides his prayerful reflections on marriage and the family: their strengths and weaknesses, their call from God and the challenges they face. Pope Francis recommends that The Joy of Love be read "patiently and carefully" (no. 7). Each week we will print an extract from the Pope's letter and reflect on how it might relate to our family lives.

1. "Every family should look to the icon of the Holy Family of Nazareth." (Amoris Laetitia 30)

The Holy Family is a model for families because whilst the Holy Family was a family with special grace it was also a family with trials and despite their many trials, the family remained faithful, loving and united. Every family has particular graces and blessings and every family also has difficulties and crosses. The story of the Holy Family is full of encouragement for those who struggle in life – especially in their family life – and it enables us to see that true riches lie within our relationships and not in our abilities and possessions. This week pray to the Holy Family asking them to help your family persevere through their trials and to thank God for all the graces and blessings your family enjoys.

READERS

Would you be interested in taking up the important Ministry of reading at the Cathedral? We are particularly looking for people who are able to read at the 10.00am Mass in the Crypt on Sundays. If you can spare some time for this please contact Claire in Cathedral House and she will be able to give you some more details. You don't need to have read before – and there is no need to be nervous – we will make sure you have all the relevant knowledge before you start. c.hanlon@metcathedral.org.uk
