Spanish Visit....

A large part of next week will be taken up with welcoming and accompanying The Archbishop of Barcelona, His Eminence Cardinal Omella and seventeen of his priests on a pastoral tour of Northern England. The group arrive in Liverpool on Sunday evening and are here until Wednesday and then wend their way up to Ampleforth visiting a number of places en route.

With our Diocese on Pilgrimage to Lourdes this week it meant that both Archbishop Malcolm and Bishop Tom were away so I have ended up as welcomer, tour guide and host. With my lack of Spanish and other diary commitments it will be a frenetic few days. Thankfully Bishop Malone will be around on Monday morning and will preside at Mass at 12.15pm when the visiting group of clergy will all join us for Mass in the Crypt Chapel.

After lunch we will spend the afternoon in Liverpool Cathedral where they will meet the Dean and be given a tour and hear about the work of the Cathedral concluding with evening prayer.

On Tuesday they will concelebrate Mass in Spanish at 9.30am if and Spanish speaking parishioners would like to join them for Mass in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel they will be most welcome. Then we are off to the Archdiocesan Centre for meetings with some of the diocesan departments. We are supposed to finish on Tuesday with a pub meal – I will probably need a strong pint by then.

I did think that the following few weeks would be a quiet period with little taking place in the Cathedral but have recently been informed that there is an international 'Scout Chamboree' in Cheshire from 28th July until 4th August involving 4,000 teenagers and their group leaders. All of the participants will be visiting both Cathedrals in groups throughout the week with lots of extra guided tours arranged for them each day. I didn't join the scouts as a youngster but was in the cubs which was run from All Saints Parish in Anfield. The only camping trips we ever went on were to Tawd Vale on the edges of Skelmersdale. In those days that was just countryside. I seem to remember that I really enjoyed all the activities but camping and, more to the point, camping food in the rain wasn't my idea of fun – I liked my sleep and grub too much.

For those following the novena of prayer during the Diocesan week of pilgrimage in Lourdes – this Sunday's intention is for vocations.

God our Father, help all people find their true vocation in life and so find happiness.

May those who answer the call to priesthood and religious life, generously follow in the footsteps of St Bernadette and give glory to your love in their lives.

Amen.

Our Lady of Lourdes, pray for us and St Bernadette pray for us.

Any queries just get in touch with Claire at c.hanlon@metcathedral.org.uk

ADOREMMUS NATIONAL EUCHARISTIC PILGRIMAGE AND CONGRESS

Eucharist is... Sacrifice
Remembering Jesus' death cannot be done simply by thinking about it. If we are to remember as we are called to remember, then we need to live as Jesus lived, think as he thought and act as he acted. We celebrate the memory of Jesus in the Eucharistic sacrifice by offering our own lives together with Jesus for the life of the world.

LITTLE CHURCH

The last date that there will be Children's Liturgy at the 10.00am Mass in the Crypt is this Sunday, 15 July. We will then take a break for the summer and start again on 9 September. Many thanks to all our helpers at Children's Liturgy. This is a very special ministry guiding and teaching our little ones. Have a good break over the summer.

REFLECTIONS ON THE JOY OF LOVE (Amoris Laetitia)

In this 325-paragraph document, Pope Francis provides his prayerful reflections on marriage and the family: their strengths and weaknesses, their call from God and the challenges they face. Pope Francis recommends that The Joy of Love be read "patiently and carefully". Each week we will print an extract from the Pope's letter and reflect on how it might relate to our family lives. "Patience takes root when I recognise that other people also have a right to live in this world, just as they are. It does not matter if they hold me back, if they unsettle my plans, or annoy me by the way they act or think, or if they are not everything I want them to be. Love always has an aspect of deep compassion that leads to accepting the other person as part of this world, even when he or she acts differently than I would like" (Amoris Laetitia 92). Deep down, if we are being honest, we may expect everyone else to think like we do; or if they don't, they should. This week, take the time to consciously appreciate one or two things that your spouse, children, or other family members do better than you, and recognise that they put up with your imperfections just as much as you put up with theirs.

READERS

Would you be interested in taking up the important Ministry of reading at the Cathedral? We are particularly looking for people who are able to read at the 10.00am Mass in the Crypt on Sundays. If you can spare some time for this please contact Claire in Cathedral House and she will be able to give you some more details. You don't need to have read before – and there is no need to be nervous – we will make sure you have all the relevant knowledge before you start. c.hanlon@metcathedral.org.uk

DATE FOR YOUR DIARY

Back by popular demand! We will be hosting an Autumn Supper at 60 Hope Street for all Cathedral visitors, parishioners and friends. The date is Wednesday 3 October from 7.00pm so pop it in your diary now. Tickets are £30 per person which includes a glass of fizz on arrival, a three course meal, live entertainment and a chance to make new friends. To apply for a ticket please either call to Cathedral House or send a cheque made payable to Metropolitan Cathedral to Claire in Cathedral House. Don't forget to mention any dietary requirements you might have. If you have any further queries please contact Claire at enquiries@metcathedral.org.uk

JOURNEY IN FAITH

There are many ways to become a Catholic!

Here at the Cathedral, our way is through exploring the Journey in Faith process and you are welcome to join us. We begin again in September. Meanwhile we would like to gather a group so that we can initially meet and plan. Do join us! Please contact:
