Ordination of Deacons

This Sunday afternoon at 3.00pm Archbishop Malcolm will ordain four men to serve as Deacons in parishes within the Diocese. They are Gergely Juhasz, Peter Mawtus, Michael Moffat and Paul Rooney. All are married men who have been in training over the last four years with the support of their wives and families. The diaconate ministry is principally one of Service and Word. It is interesting that in the description of the choice of the first deacons in the Acts of the Apostles it refers to them being appointed, by the laying on of hands, to serve the whole community to make sure that all were treated fairly in the distribution of food. Then in the next chapter we hear of Stephen, the first martyr, working miracles and proclaiming the word with wisdom. The ministry of service very quickly incorporated that witness to and proclamation of the Word. The ordination service today still refers to this dual role as ministers of Word and Charity with the central part of the rite being the calling down the Holy Spirit and the laying on of hands. When there are men continuing on to be ordained as priests they take their vow of celibacy as part of the diaconate ordination rite – obviously this part of the rite is not applied in the case of married men. However, the current church norm is that if a deacon subsequently becomes a widower he would be expected to remain celibate as is the case with married priests and deacons within the orthodox and eastern rite churches.

Monsignor Cookson will be celebrating a significant birthday milestone on 16th July when he is 80 years young. Along with some other staff members in Cathedral House who celebrate birthdays this month we will be celebrating with him by going out for a birthday lunch together this week. Monsignor Peter will be celebrating his actual birthday with his family in Lytham. I want to take this opportunity to offer him our congratulations and thanks. He served as Cathedral Dean here for 17 years and following major surgery and a considerable period of time in convalescence he returned here and has been a quiet, extremely knowledgeable and very helpful member of the Cathedral clergy team ever since. His service to the Cathedral and our community has been invaluable and I know that, along with us all in Cathedral House, you all hold him in very high regard. Ad multos Annos.

This coming week on Monday morning at 10.00am Bishop Williams will celebrate Mass for children from various catholic schools in the Liverpool area to mark the forthcoming end of term and the transition from primary to secondary education. Then on Thursday St John Bosco High School will be holding their prize giving ceremony in the Cathedral at 1.30pm.

On Tuesday evenings we have had a period of prayer before the Blessed Sacrament after the 5.15pm Mass for some months which has been organised by a group of young adults. Following a meeting last week we have decided to change the format slightly and have a period of quiet prayer for half an hour before the Blessed Sacrament and then follow this at 6.30pm with a discussion for young adults on the coming Sunday Readings.

CATHEDRAL BOOK CLUB

The next meeting of the Cathedral Book Club will be Thursday 8 August at 7.00pm in the Gibberd Room. The book this month is Small Island by Andrea Levy. Small Island explores a point in England's past when the country began to change. In this delicately wrought and profoundly moving novel, Levy handles the weighty themes of empire, prejudice, war and love with a lightness of touch and a generosity of spirit that challenges and uplifts the reader. New readers are always welcome.

NEWS FROM ST NICHOLAS

We are very proud to now have a dedicated display board in the Cathedral's Crypt Chapel just as you enter through the entrance doors. Hopefully you will have noticed this new addition if you have visited over the last few days. Thank you to Claire and Canon O'Brien for their help with organising this. On the board we will regularly display a variety of children's work for everyone to see and read. For our very first display we asked our oldest children, (Year Six), to reflect on their time at St Nicholas and write down one key memory they will take with them when they leave. We had such wonderful responses which were a true joy to read. If you visit the Crypt, please take a moment to read the fabulous memories the children have shared.

SYNOD PRAYER

Father, we thank you for the love you have shown us in the gift of Jesus, your Son. We thank you for the gift of the Church, through which you show us that you are always with us and are always at work in our lives.

As we journey together to Synod 2020 help us to become the Church that you are calling us to be. May your Holy Spirit be powerfully at work among us. Strengthen each of us and guide Francis, our Pope and Malcolm, our Archbishop.

Help us to respond to the challenges of our times in new ways to bring your love to all our sisters and brothers.

We make this prayer through Jesus Christ Our Lord. Amen.

CTMR

Are you 18+ and a young adult? The Churches Together in the Merseyside Region (CTMR) 18+ group invite young adults on Merseyside to join them for a 'bring and share meal' on Monday 8th July 2019 at 22 School Lane, Liverpool L1 3BT from 6:30pm-8:30pm. All are welcome.

ORDINATION OF DEACONS

Please remember in your prayers the four men who are to be ordained Deacons on Sunday.

They are:-

- Gergely Juhasz
- Peter Mawtus
- Michael Moffat
- Paul Rooney

Heavenly Father, since the time of the Apostles you have inspired the Church to commission certain members to assist in a special way in the pastoral mission of Christ. Bless the deacons and all other ordained and non-ordained ministers that they may be humble and faith-inspired in their service. We ask this through Christ, our Lord.
