Happy Holidays

During the next few weeks we will just print the News section of the newsletter without a Cathedral Record - so this is the last one during the holiday period. For all those who will be travelling away on holidays I wish you an enjoyable and restful time away. For this week I have included excerpts from the homily of the newly installed Archbishop of Southwark, Archbishop John Wilson, who was ordained a priest for the Leeds Diocese, then appointed as Auxiliary Bishop of Westminster prior to this recent appointment

'If any of you are surprised to see me standing here today, then let me reassure you that you're not as surprised as I am. Pope Francis spoke recently of three amazing realities within the life of faith: that God calls, that God surprises, and that God loves.' Everything in our life changes when we know we are loved by God in Christ. In fact, when we truly know this, at the core of our being, everything really begins in the most beautiful way. This love must surprise us continually, each day, in a new way, as God calls us forward in hope.

This Cathedral houses a shrine to St Oscar Romero, the remarkable Archbishop of San Salvador, martyred in 1980. I was just seventeen when I first read a book of quotations from his homilies. I've never forgotten the title. It was called The Church is All of You. That truth is at the heart of our pilgrimage as the Body of Christ. The Church is all of you, the Church is all of us, joined with Jesus Christ, our Head, and continuing His mission. In this, every Catholic is called to be an evangelising disciple. Each one of us has an irreplaceable part to play in the flourishing of God's kingdom. The Lord needs you. His Church needs you. This Archdiocese and its Archbishop, its parishes and its schools, needs you so that united in faith, here and now, we can announce anew the joy of the Good News, so that side by side we can serve the Lord Jesus in the downtrodden and in the despairing, in the weakest and in the poorest.

As you saw, an important part of the installation liturgy is when the new Bishop is seated in his cathedra, his chair. I am acutely aware that the Lord Jesus has a warning for anyone who might sit upon a throne. When the mother of St James asked Him to give her two sons seats of honour in His kingdom, He in turn asked them a question: Can you drink the cup that I am going to drink? With these words the Lord Jesus signalled that following Him means sharing in His cross. Can we drink the cup that He drank? In a sense, we do this whenever we experience suffering, whether personally or in the lives of those around us and in our world. We must always be a Church of Simons of Cyrene, a Church of Veronicas, who help carry others' burdens, who wipe the faces of the distressed.

Please pray for me as I promise to pray for you. Please ask our Blessed Lady to draw me, through her Immaculate Heart, ever closer to the Sacred Heart of her Son. And so then to God, who by His power at work within us can do more than we ask or imagine, to Him be glory in the Church and in Christ Jesus, to all generations, for ever and ever. Amen. Most Rev John Wilson Archbishop of Southwark

CATHEDRAL WALKING GROUP

The next date for the Cathedral Walking Group will be on Sunday 18 August 2019 where once again we will meet at 12.30pm at the Cathedral Car Park. Previous walks have been excellent! Further details from c.hanlon@metcathedral.org.uk New walkers are always welcome.

CATHEDRAL BOOK CLUB

The next meeting of the Cathedral Book Club will be Thursday 8 August at 7.00pm in the Gibberd Room. The book this month is Small Island by Andrea Levy. Small Island explores a point in England's past when the country began to change. In this delicately wrought and profoundly moving novel, Levy handles the weighty themes of empire, prejudice, war and love with a lightness of touch and a generosity of spirit that challenges and uplifts the reader. New readers are always welcome.

PROJECT GAMBIA

Project Gambia, a charity set up by volunteers to support children in a School for the Deaf in one of Africa's poorest countries, is offering the opportunity for our parishioners to 'Sponsor a Classroom' at the school. For £100, you may wish to do this in memory of a loved one. As part of this, a plaque will be displayed at the front of the school and the children at the school will pray for the person the classroom is sponsored for. Please contact Aidan on 07713 684816 for more information.

NEWS FROM ST NICHOLAS

Last Wednesday the children enjoyed that very exciting and special day, (which I'm sure we all recall from our childhood days), when school finished and the summer holidays started. At the end of this term it is always very noticeable how the children have grown over the year and are now more than ready to move up to their next class or to start their next stage of education at their new secondary school. It is a time to look forward to what lies ahead but also to reflect on all that has been achieved in the school year which is now ending. We have wished all the children a very happy and safe summer holiday and I would like to wish you the same too. Have a great summer!

SYNOD 2020

As we move towards the next phase of our Synod Journey we are delighted to announce a series of talks that will help us to better understand some of the pressing concerns of the Church and society as we continue to discern the Church that God is calling us to be. The first talk, The Quiet Revolution of Pope Francis: A Synodal Catholic Church by Fr Gerry O'Hanlon SJ is on Monday 7 October. Talks are monthly and take place in Liverpool Hope University Chapel. They begin at 7:30pm (tea and coffee from 7pm) and conclude at 8:45pm. An optional night prayer follows at 9pm. Each talk includes a time for questions. All are welcome.
