THE FIRST SYNOD THEME

Our first meeting to come together and explore the first Synod Theme will be on Saturday 26 October directly after the 9.00am Mass.

Everyone is welcome.

At the meeting we will hear a little of what was said to inspire this Theme, reflect on Scripture and Tradition as we try to understand God's dream for his Church, and generate proposals for action to put forward to the Synod.

This first part of our reflections on the day will look at what was said during the Synod Listening. Some of the things that led to this Theme are:

- Gifts of lay people should be appropriately used.
- Young people need to know that they are valued members of our community.
- We value our priests and are worried about what life will be like for them in the future.
- The role of women in the Church should be celebrated and developed.
- We want to be a more inclusive Church welcoming of diversity and the gift of every person.

So, In the light of what people said you will be invited to reflect on the following questions and they are printed below to give you chance to give them some consideration before the meeting:-

- What different models of leadership in parishes could we explore?
- How should we encourage and equip people to use their different gifts in mission and ministry?
- How do we enable people of all ages, especially young people, to grow, flourish and contribute as part of our communities?
- What needs to change about the way priests are recruited, trained, appointed and supported?
- What structures need to be put in place to ensure effective collaboration and decision making between ordained and lay people?

Having reflected on the situation, how our faith informs us and what needs to be done in order to become the Church God is calling us to be, write your proposals for action and either hand it in to one of the Cathedral clergy, or Cathedral House, take it along to the meeting on 26 October, or submit it online at www.synod2020.co.uk/themes.

Prayer

Lord,
 I thank you for the wonder of my being,
 And for all the goodness in my life.
 I thank you that you have called and gifted me
 That I might make a difference in the world
 In which you have placed me.
 Open my heart more fully to your Spirit
 That I may rejoice in all that you have done
 And will do in me and through me.
 Amen.

NEWS FROM ST NICHOLAS' SCHOOL

A big thankyou from us all here at school to Father Philip for being part of our special Harvest Festival Assembly last week. Thanks must also go to all our parents/carers, our children and staff who contributed so generously bringing in tins and packets of food. The assembly was beautifully led by the children in front of the whole school and we all joined together in prayer and hymns. Yet again we are so very proud of our school and our school community. The food donated was very gratefully received by the nuns at the Missionaries of Charity who wanted their thanks passed on too.

THEME 1 All called and gifted by God.

The next step on our Synod journey is to generate the proposals for action within each of the four themes that have emerged from our listening sessions that took place earlier on in the year. There will be four different opportunities for us all to engage on each of the themes, reflect on how they challenge and inspire us, and generate proposals that will help us to become the Church that God is calling us to be. Our first gathering together will be on Saturday 26 October straight after the 9.00am Mass. We will meet in the Gibberd Room. All welcome. Please collect a leaflet and a prayer card that have been left at the back of the Cathedral and the Crypt Chapel which contains more details on the themes.

Journey in Faith starts on Monday evenings in Cathedral House (6pm), at the end of October. This is a process for anyone considering becoming a Catholic. You may belong to another Christian denomination. You may be of another world faith or religion. Possibly you don't regard yourself as having any particular faith commitment. For those wishing to become Catholic, the sessions lead to Reception into the Church at the next Easter Vigil in 2020. Yet there is no obligation to do so. Our gatherings, led by a team of four, are informal and carefully structured. We already have some members of our new group, ready to start. If you'd like to join us, we'd love to hear from you. E Mail: enquiries@metcathedral.org.uk Tel: 0151 709 9222 ext. 201 or 203.
