EPISCOPAL ORDINATION
OF
CANON THOMAS JOSEPH NEYLN

CELEBRANT
ARCHBISHOP MALCOLM McMAHON OP

FRIDAY 3 SEPTEMBER 2021 AT 12 NOON
It gives me great joy to welcome you today to the Metropolitan Cathedral of Christ the King for the Episcopal Ordination of Canon Thomas Neylon, on this feast day of St Gregory the Great. It is testament to the service which Canon Neylon has offered to the Archdiocese of Liverpool that the Holy Father has appointed him Auxiliary Bishop. Indeed, the presence of so many people from across the archdiocese and beyond pays tribute to his ministry, and reflects very fittingly Canon Neylon’s own sentiment and new episcopal motto, I call you friends. I would like to offer a particular welcome to the family of Canon Neylon, and extend thanks to all of you, on behalf of myself and Bishop Thomas Williams, for joining us for this special occasion.

St Gregory the Great reminds us that it is for the love of him that we do not spare ourselves in the service of Christ, and this is a timely reflection for any person called to serve the People of God in the episcopal ministry. Please join me in praying for Canon Neylon as he begins this next stage in his ministry, that the service he offers as a Bishop will grow each day for the love of him who calls him to this work, and that as his friends, with God’s help, we will support and encourage him in this service.

† Malcolm McMahon OP

Most Rev Malcolm McMahon OP
Archbishop of Liverpool
Thank you for your presence here today.

If this is your first visit to the Metropolitan Cathedral of Christ the King, you are most welcome.

We gather in a spirit of prayer and thanksgiving for the faith we have received and for my episcopal ordination as Titular Bishop of Plestia and as an Auxiliary Bishop of Liverpool. You are among members of my family, relations, friends, ecumenical partners and representatives of the civil authorities across the archdiocese, the faithful of the archdiocese including those it has been my privilege to serve as a priest, those of consecrated life, the deacons, religious and secular clergy, and as well as Bishops and Archbishops from England and Wales.

Today is the feast of Pope St Gregory the Great. In the 6th century he charged St Augustine of Canterbury with a mission to kindle the faith of the people of this island. May our prayers today strengthen our witness to the faith and rekindle the Catholic Christian faith among those whom we live with.

Bishop Thomas Neylon
Auxiliary Bishop of Liverpool

INTRODUCTORY RITES

PROCESSION as the procession enters the Cathedral, all stand and join in singing

1 Praise to the holiest in the height,
And in the depth be praise,
In all his words most wonderful,
Most sure in all his ways.

2 O loving wisdom of our God!
When all was sin and shame,
A second Adam to the fight
And to the rescue came.

3 O wisest love! that flesh and blood,
Which did in Adam fail,
Should strive afresh against their foe,
Should strive and should prevail.

4 And that a higher gift than grace
Should flesh and blood refine,
God’s presence and his very self,
And essence all-divine.

5 O generous love! that he who smote
In man for man the foe,
The double agony in Man
For man should undergo;

6 And in the garden secretly,
And on the cross on high,
Should teach his brethren, and inspire
To suffer and to die.

7 Praise to the Holiest in the height,
And in the depth be praise,
In all his words most wonderful,
Most sure in all his ways.
INTROIT  the Choir sings Sacerdotes Dei, benedicite Dominum;
sancti ey humiles corde, laudate Deum.
Benedicite omnia opera Domini Domino:
laudate et super exaltate eum in saecula.

Priests of God, bless the Lord, praise the Lord all who are holy and humble of heart. Alleluia. Bless the Lord, all you works of the Lord, praise and exalt him above all forever.

GREETING
In the name of the Father,
and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
R. Amen.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
and the love of God,
and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.
R. And with your spirit.

PENITENTIAL RITE  after introducing the Mass, the Archbishop bids all repent of their sins saying Lord Jesus, you have revealed yourself as the way to the Father:
Lord, have mercy.
R. Lord, have mercy.

You have poured out on your people the Spirit of truth:
Christ, have mercy.
R. Christ, have mercy.

You are the Good Shepherd, leading us to eternal life:
Lord, have mercy.
R. Lord, have mercy.

May almighty God have mercy on us,
forgive us our sins,
and bring us to everlasting life.
R. Amen.
GLORIA  the Choir sings
Glória in excelsis Deo et in terra pax hominibus bonae voluntatis.
Laudamus te. Benedicimus te.
Adoramus te. Glorificamus te.
Gratias agimus tibi propter magnam gloriam tuam.

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you,
we adore you, we glorify you,
we give thanks to you for your great glory.

Domine Deus, Rex coelestis, Deus Pater omnipotens.
Domine Fili unigenite Jesu Christe.
Domine Deus, Agnus Dei, Filius
Patris, qui tollis peccata mundi, miserere nobis.

Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father,
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;

Qui tollis peccata mundi, suscipe deprecationem nostram.
Qui sedes ad dexteram Patris,
miserere nobis.
Quoniam tu solus sanctus,
tu solus Dominus,
tu solus altissimus, Jesu Christe.
Cum Sancto Spiritu, in gloria Dei Patris. Amen.

you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

COLLECT
O God, who care for your people with gentleness and rule them in love,
through the intercession of our father Pope Saint Gregory, who sent the first missionaries to our land, endow, we pray, with a spirit of wisdom
those to whom you have given authority to govern, that the flourishing of a holy flock
may become the eternal joy of the shepherds.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.
R. Amen.

All sit.
LITURGY OF THE WORD

READING  read by Barbara Norris, St Wilfrid’s, Widnes
A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians 4:1-2,5-7

Since we have by an act of mercy been entrusted with this work of administration, there is no weakening on our part. On the contrary, we will have none of the reticence of those who are ashamed, no deceitfulness or watering down the word of God; but the way we commend ourselves to every human being with a conscience is by stating the truth openly in the sight of God. For it is not ourselves that we are preaching, but Christ Jesus as the Lord, and ourselves as your servants for Jesus’ sake. It is the same God that said, ‘Let there be light shining out of darkness’, who has shone in our minds to radiate the light of the knowledge of God’s glory, the glory on the face of Christ.

We are only the earthenware jars that hold this treasure, to make it clear that such an overwhelming power comes from God and not from us.

The Word of the Lord.
R. Thanks be to God.

PSALM 95 all sing the response R. after the Cantor and after each verse of the psalm

O sing a new song to the Lord, sing to the Lord all the earth.
O sing to the Lord, bless his name. R.

Proclaim his help day by day, tell among the nations his glory and his wonders among all the peoples. R.

Give the Lord, you families of peoples,
give the Lord glory and power,
give the Lord the glory of his name. R.

Worship the Lord in his temple.
O earth, tremble before him.
Proclaim to the nations: ‘God is king.’
He will judge the peoples in fairness. R.
GOSPEL ACCLAMATION  the Deacon of the Gospel asks the Archbishop for a blessing, then he carries the Book of Gospels in procession to the Lectern. All stand and join in singing the response R, after the Choir and again after the verse

R.

I call you friends, says the Lord, because I have made known to you everything I have learnt from my Father. R.

GOSPEL

The Lord be with you.
R. And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke 22:24-30
R. Glory to you, O Lord.

A dispute arose between the disciples about which should be reckoned the greatest, but Jesus said to them, ‘Among pagans it is the kings who lord it over them, and those who have authority over them are given the title Benefactor. This must not happen with you. No; the greatest among you must behave as if he were the youngest, the leader as if he were the one who serves. For who is the greater: the one at table or the one who serves? The one at table, surely? Yet here am I among you as one who serves!

‘You are the men who have stood by me faithfully in my trials; and now I confer a kingdom on you, just as my Father conferred one on me: you will eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and you will sit on thrones to judge the twelve tribes of Israel.’

The Gospel of the Lord.
R. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

All repeat the Alleluia as before.
RITE OF ORDINATION

All remain standing and prepare for the Ordination Rite by joining in singing the hymn

Veni, Creator Spiritus,
Mentes tuorum visita:
Iple superna gratia
Quae tu creasti pectora.

Qui diceris Paraclitus, Altissimi donum Dei,
Fons vivus, ignis, caritas,
Et spiritalis unctio.

Tu septiformis munere,
Digitus paternae dexterae,
Tu rite promissum Patris Sermone ditans guttura.

Accende lumen sensibus;
Infund' amorem cordibus.
Infirma nostri corporis
Virtute firmans perpeti.

Hostem repellas longius,
Pacemque dones protinus;
Ductore sic te praevio Vitemus omne noxium.

Per te sciamus da Patrem, Noscamus atque Filium;
Tequ’ utriusque Spiritum.
Credamus omni tempore.

Deo Patri sit Gloria,
Et Filio qui a mortuis
Surrexit, ac Paraclito,
In saeculorum saecula. Amen.

Come, Holy Ghost, Creator, come
From thy bright heavenly throne;
Come, take possession of our souls,
And make them all thine own.

Thou who art called the Paraclete,
Best gift of God above,
The living spring, the living fire,
Sweet unction and true love.

Thou who are sev’nfold in thy grace,
Finger of God’s right hand;
His promise, teaching little ones
To speak and understand.

O guide our minds with thy blest light,
With love our hearts inflame;
And with thy strength, which ne’er decays,
Confirm our mortal frame.

Far from us drive our deadly foe;
True peace unto us bring;
And through all perils lead us safe
Beneath thy sacred wing.

Through thee may we the Father know,
Through thee th’eternal Son,
And thee the Spirit of them both,
Thrice-blessed Three in One.

All glory to the Father be,
With his co-equal Son:
The same to thee, great Paraclete,
While endless ages run. Amen.
PRESENTATION AND ACCEPTANCE OF THE BISHOP ELECT  Canon Christopher Cunningham addresses the Archbishop Most Reverend Father, the Church of Liverpool asks you to ordain this priest, Canon Thomas Neylon for service as Bishop.

The Archbishop asks
Have you a mandate from the Holy See?

Canon Christopher Cunningham replies
We have.

The Archbishop
Let it be read.

All sit while the mandate is read by Canon Aidan Prescott (Chancellor of the Archdiocese).  He concludes by saying
This is the mandate we have received.

All reply
R. Thanks be to God.

HOMILY  Bishop Paul Swarbrick

EXAMINATION OF THE CANDIDATE  at the end of the homily the Archbishop invites the Bishop Elect to stand before him, and continues
An age-old custom of the Fathers decrees that a bishop elect is to be questioned before the people on his resolve to uphold the faith and to discharge his duties faithfully.

My brother, are you resolved by the grace of the Holy Spirit to discharge to the end of your life the office the apostles entrusted to us, which we now pass on to you by the laying-on of hands?

The Bishop Elect replies
R. I am.

Are you resolved to be faithful and constant in proclaiming the Gospel of Christ?
R. I am.

Are you resolved to maintain the deposit of faith, entire and incorrupt, as handed down by the apostles and professed by the Church everywhere and at all times?
R. I am.

Are you resolved to build up the Church as the body of Christ and to remain united to it within the order of bishops under the authority of the successor of the apostle Peter?
R. I am.

Are you resolved to be faithful in your obedience to the successor of the apostle Peter?
R. I am.
Are you resolved, as a devoted father, to sustain the people of God and to guide them in the way of salvation in co-operation with the priests and deacons who share your ministry?
R. I am.

Are you resolved to show kindness and compassion in the name of the Lord to the poor and to strangers and to all who are in need?
R. I am.

Are you resolved as a good shepherd to seek out the sheep who stray and to gather them into the fold of the Lord?
R. I am.

Are you resolved to pray for the people of God without ceasing, and to carry out the duties of one who has the fullness of the priesthood so as to afford no grounds for reproach?
R. I am, with the help of God.

May God who has begun the good work in you bring it to fulfilment.

INVITATION TO PRAYER  all stand and the Archbishop says
My dear people,
let us pray that almighty God in his goodness will pour out his grace upon Thomas Neylon whom he has chosen to provide for the needs of the Church.

LITANY OF SAINTS  the Bishop Elect prostrates himself.  All remain standing and join in singing the responses
Cantor

Bless this man, make him holy and consecrate him for his sacred duties
Jesus, son of the living God

Lord, we ask you, hear our prayer.

Christ, hear us

Christ hear us.

Christ, graciously hear us.
The Archbishop says
Lord,
be moved by our prayers.
Anoint your servant with the fullness of priestly grace,
and bless him with spiritual power in all its richness.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
R. Amen.

LAYING ON OF HANDS AND PRAYER OF CONSECRATION  the Archbishop lays his hands on the head of the Bishop Elect. After him, all the other Bishops present do the same.

The Bishop Elect kneels before the Archbishop who places an open Book of the Gospels upon his head; the Deacons hold it above his head until the Prayer of Consecration is completed.

The Archbishop says
God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,
Father of mercies and God of all consolation
you dwell in heaven,
yet look with compassion on all that is humble.
You know all things before they come to be;
by your gracious word
you have established the plan of your Church.
From the beginning
you chose the descendants of Abraham to be your holy nation.
You established rulers and priests, and did not leave your sanctuary without ministers to serve you.
From the creation of the world
you have been pleased to be glorified by those whom you have chosen.

The Consecrating Bishops say together
So now pour out upon this chosen one that power which is from you,
the governing Spirit
whom you gave to your beloved Son, Jesus Christ, the Spirit given by him to the holy Apostles, who founded the Church in every place to be your temple for the unceasing glory and praise of your name.

The Archbishop continues alone
Father, you know all hearts.
You have chosen your servant for the office of bishop.
May he be shepherd to your holy flock,
and a high priest blameless in your sight,
ministering to you night and day;
may he always gain the blessing of your favour and offer the gifts of your holy Church.
Through the Spirit who gives the grace of high priesthood grant him power to forgive sins as you have commanded,
to assign ministries as you have decreed, and to loose every bond by the authority which you gave to your apostles.

May he be pleasing to you by his gentleness and purity of heart, presenting a fragrant offering to you,
through Jesus Christ, your Son, through whom glory and power and honour are yours with the Holy Spirit
in your holy Church,
now and forever.
R. Amen.

All sit.

ANOINTING OF THE BISHOP’S HEAD the Archbishop anoints the head of the bishop with chrism, saying God has brought you to share the high priesthood of Christ.
May he pour out on you the oil of mystical anointing and enrich you with spiritual blessings.

PRESENTATION OF THE BOOK OF GOSPELS the Archbishop hands the Book of Gospels to the newly-ordained bishop, saying Receive the Gospel and preach the word of God with unfailing patience and sound teaching.

INVESTITURE WITH RING, MITRE AND PASTORAL STAFF as he places the ring on the new bishop’s finger, the Archbishop says
Take this ring, the seal of your fidelity.
With faith and love protect the bride of God, his holy Church.

The Archbishop places a mitre on the head of the new bishop in silence, then he gives the bishop a pastoral staff and says
Take this staff as a sign of your pastoral office:
keep watch over the whole flock in which the Holy Spirit has appointed you to shepherd the Church of God.

The new bishop is then invited to take the first place among the concelebrating bishops.
KISS OF PEACE  the newly-ordained bishop is welcomed into the Episcopal order by the other bishops with the kiss of peace. Meanwhile all join in singing:

1. Will you come and follow me if I but call your name?
2. Will you leave yourself behind if I but call your name?
3. Will you let the blind see if I but call your name?
4. Will you love the you you hide if I but call your name?
   Lord, your summons echoes true when you but call my name.

PREPARATION OF THE GIFTS  the gifts are carried forward by Joe and Peter Neylon (nephews), James Neylon (brother) and Mary Annels (sister), family members of the newly-ordained bishop. Meanwhile the Choir sings ‘Jubilate Deo’:

O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands: serve the Lord with gladness, and come before his presence with a song. Be ye sure that the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture. O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and speak good of his Name. For the Lord is gracious, his mercy is everlasting: and his truth endureth from generation to generation. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

All stand when the thurifer comes forward to incense the people.
PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS  the Archbishop says
Pray, brethren, that our sacrifice may be acceptable to God the almighty Father.
R. May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands,
for the praise and glory of his name,
for our good and the good of all his Church.

Grant our supplication, we pray, O Lord, that this sacrifice we present in celebration of Saint Gregory may be for our good, since through its offering you have loosed the offences of all the world.
Through Christ our Lord.
R. Amen.

EUCHARISTIC PRAYER  the Archbishop sings, then all sing the Responses

The Lord be with you.  And with your spirit.

Lift up your hearts.  We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.  It is right and just.

The Archbishop continues
It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks,
Lord, holy Father, almighty and eternal God.

For by the anointing of the Holy Spirit
you made your Only Begotten Son High Priest of the new and eternal covenant, and by your wondrous design were pleased to decree that his one Priesthood should continue in the Church.

For Christ not only adorns with a royal priesthood
the people he has made his own, but with a brother’s kindness he also chooses men to become sharers in his sacred ministry through the laying on of hands.
They are to renew in his name
the sacrifice of human redemption, to set before your children the paschal banquet,
to lead your holy people in charity, to nourish them with the word and strengthen them with the Sacraments.

As they give up their lives for you and for the salvation of their brothers and sisters, they strive to be conformed to the image of Christ himself and offer you a constant witness of faith and love.

And so, Lord, with all the Angels and Saints,
we, too, give you thanks, as in exultation we acclaim:

SANCTUS  the Choir sings
Sanctus, sanctus, sanctus Dominus, Deus Sabaoth.
Pleni sunt coeli et terra gloria tua.
Hosanna in excelsis.

The people kneel and the Archbishop continues
To you, therefore, most merciful Father, we make humble prayer and petition through Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord:
that you accept
and bless these gifts, these offerings, these holy and unblemished sacrifices, which we offer you firstly for your holy catholic Church.
Be pleased to grant her peace,
to guard, unite and govern her throughout the whole world, together with your servant Francis our Pope and me your unworthy servant,
and all those who, holding to the truth,
hand on the catholic and apostolic faith.

A concelebrant says
Remember, Lord, your servants and all gathered here,
whose faith and devotion are known to you.
For them, we offer you this sacrifice of praise or they offer it for themselves and all who are dear to them, for the redemption of their souls,
in hope of health and well-being,
and paying their homage to you,
the eternal God, living and true.

Another concelebrant continues
In communion with those whose memory we venerate, especially the glorious ever-Virgin Mary, Mother of our God and Lord, Jesus Christ, and blessed Joseph, her Spouse,
your blessed Apostles and Martyrs,
Peter and Paul, Andrew,
James, John,
Thomas, James, Philip,
Bartholomew, Matthew,
Simon and Jude:
Linus, Cletus, Clement, Sixtus,
Cornelius, Cyprian,
Lawrence, Chrysogonus,
John and Paul,
Cosmas and Damian
and all your Saints:
we ask that through their merits and prayers,
in all things we may be defended by your protecting help.

The Archbishop says
Therefore, Lord, we pray:
graciously accept this oblation of our service,
that of your whole family,
which we make to you also for your servant Thomas, whom you have been pleased to raise to the Order of Bishops;
and in your mercy, keep safe your gifts in him,
so that what he has received by divine commission
he may fulfil by divine assistance.

All the concelebrants continue
Be pleased, O God, we pray, to bless, acknowledge,
and approve this offering in every respect;
make it spiritual and acceptable,
so that it may become for us
the Body and Blood of your most beloved Son, our Lord Jesus Christ.

On the day before he was to suffer,
he took bread in his holy and venerable hands,
and with eyes raised to heaven
to you, O God, his almighty Father, giving you thanks he said the blessing, broke the bread
and gave it to his disciples, saying:

Take this, all of you, and eat of it,
for this is my body,
which will be given up for you.

In a similar way, when supper was ended,
he took this precious chalice in his holy and venerable hands, and once more giving you thanks, he said the blessing and gave the chalice to his disciples, saying:

Take this, all of you, and drink from it,
for this is the chalice of my blood,
the blood of the new and eternal covenant, which will be poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
do this in memory of me.

The Archbishop sings
Let us proclaim the mystery of faith.
R. When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup,
we proclaim your Death, O Lord,
until you come again.

All the concelebrants continue
Therefore, O Lord,
as we celebrate the memorial of the blessed Passion,
the Resurrection from the dead,
and the glorious Ascension into heaven
of Christ, your Son, our Lord, we, your servants and your holy people, offer to your glorious majesty from the gifts that you have given us,
this pure victim,
this holy victim,
this spotless victim,
the holy Bread of eternal life and the Chalice of everlasting salvation.

Be pleased to look upon these offerings with a serene and kindly countenance, and to accept them,
as once you were pleased to accept the gifts of your servant Abel the just,
the sacrifice of Abraham, our father in faith,
and the offering of your high priest Melchizedek,
a holy sacrifice, a spotless victim.
In humble prayer we ask you, almighty God:
command that these gifts be borne by the hands of your holy Angel to your altar on high in the sight of your divine majesty, so that all of us who through this participation at the altar receive the most holy Body and Blood of your Son, may be filled with every grace and heavenly blessing.

A concelebrant says
Remember also, Lord, your servants, who have gone before us with the sign of faith and rest in the sleep of peace.
Grant them, O Lord, we pray,
and all who sleep in Christ,
a place of refreshment, light and peace.

Another concelebrant continues
To us, also, your servants, who, though sinners, hope in your abundant mercies, graciously grant some share
and fellowship with your holy Apostles and Martyrs:
with John the Baptist, Stephen, Matthias, Barnabas,
Ignatius, Alexander,
Marcellinus, Peter,
Felicity, Perpetua,
Agatha, Lucy,
Agnes, Cecilia, Anastasia
and all your Saints:
admit us, we beseech you,
into their company,
not weighing our merits,
but granting us your pardon,
through Christ our Lord.

The Archbishop says
Through whom you continue to make all these good things, O Lord;
you sanctify them, fill them with life,
bless them, and bestow them upon us.
The Archbishop continues
Through him, and with him, and in him,

All the concelebrants continue:
O God, almighty Father,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all glory and honour is yours,
for ever and ever.
R. Amen.

COMMUNION RITE

All stand and the Archbishop invites everyone to join in saying the Lord’s Prayer
Our Father, who art in heaven...

Then he continues
Deliver us, Lord, we pray, from every evil, graciously grant peace in our days,
that, by the help of your mercy,
we may be always free from sin
and safe from all distress, as we await the blessed hope and the coming of our Saviour, Jesus Christ.
R. For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours
now and for ever.

Lord Jesus Christ,
who said to your Apostles:
Peace I leave you, my peace I give you,
look not on our sins,
but on the faith of your Church,
and graciously grant her peace and unity in accordance with your will.
Who live and reign for ever and ever.
R. Amen.

The peace of the Lord be with you always.
R. And with your spirit.

One of the Deacons says
Let us offer each other a sign of peace.

During the Breaking of Bread, all kneel and the Choir sings
Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi:    Lamb of God, you take away the sins miserere nobis.                      of the world. Have mercy on us.
Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi:    Lamb of God, you take away the sins
dona nobis pacem.                   of the world. Grant us peace.
The Archbishop says
Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world.
Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.
R. Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Communicants are asked to follow the directions of the Stewards in coming forward for Holy Communion.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON  the Choir sings Fidelis servus et prudens, quem constituit Dominus super familiam suam:
ut det ilis in tempore tritici mensuram.
What sort of steward, then, is faithful and wise enough for the master to place him over his household to give them their allowance of food at the proper time?

All join in singing the response R. after the Choir and after each verse Praise God in his Holy place, praise him in his mighty heavens.

Praise him for his pow’ful deeds, praise his surpassing greatness. R.

O praise him with the sound of trumpet, praise him with the lute and harp.
Praise him with timbrel and dance, praise him with strings and pipes. R.

O praise him with resounding cymbals, praise him with clashing of cymbals.
Let everything that lives and that breathes give praise to the Lord. R.

Give praise to the Father Almighty, to his Son, Jesus Christ the Lord, to the spirit who dwells in our hearts, both now and for ever. Amen. R.

The Choir sings
Ave verum corpus natum
de Maria Virgine:
Vere passum, immolatum
in cruce pro homine.
Cujus latus perforatum
fluxit aqua et sanguine:
Esto nobis praegustatum mortis in examine.
Hail to thee! True body sprung from the Virgin Mary’s womb!
The same that on the cross was hung and bore for man the bitter doom.
Thou whose side was pierced and flowed both with water and with blood, suffer us to taste thee in our life’s last agony.
COMMUNION HYMN  all join in singing

1  Soul of my Saviour, sanctify my breast;
   Body of Christ, be thou my saving guest,
   Blood of my Saviour, bathe me in thy tide,
   Wash me with water flowing from thy side.

2  Strength and protection may thy passion be,
   O blessèd Jesu, hear and answer me;
   Deep in thy wounds, Lord, hide and shelter me,
   So shall I never, never part from thee.

3  Guard and defend me from the foe malign,
   In death’s dread moments make me only thine;
   Call me and bid me come to thee on high
   Where I may praise thee with thy saints for ay.

   All stand.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION  the Archbishop says

Let us pray.
   Through Christ the teacher, O Lord, instruct those you feed with Christ, the living Bread, that on the feast day of Saint Gregory they may learn your truth and express it in works of charity.
   Through Christ our Lord.
   R. Amen.

R. Amen.

A Deacon says
Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
R. Thanks be to God.

RECESSIONAL HYMN  all join in singing

1 Hail, Redeemer King divine!
Priest and Lamb, the throne is thine,
King whose reign shall never cease,
Prince of everlasting peace!
   Angels, saints and nations sing ‘Praised be Jesus Christ, our King;
   Lord of life, earth, sky and sea,
   King of love on Calvary’.

2 King, whose name creation thrills,
Rule our minds, our hearts, our wills,
Till in peace each nation rings
With thy praises, King of kings!
   Angels, saints...

3 King most holy, King of truth,
Guide the lowly, guide the youth,
Christ, thou King of glory bright,
Be to us eternal light!
   Angels, saints...
Shepherd-King o’er mountains steep
Homeward bring the wandering sheep:
Shelter in one royal fold
States and kingdoms new and old.
   Sing with joy in ev’ry home:
   ‘Sacred Heart, thy Kingdom come!’
   To the King of Ages, then,
   Honour, glory, love.  Amen.
